Dear Mr. President:

Enclosed you will find a copy of a letter sent to Central Intelligence Director William Casey. Mr. Casey delivered an address at Brown University on October 15, during which time he was repeatedly interrupted by a small but vocal minority of the audience. We deeply regret this affront to a Cabinet officer of the United States Government.

Very truly yours,

The Honorable William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

Dear Mr. Casey,

Though we cannot speak for the entire Brown University community, we apologize for the insolent treatment which was accorded you on your October 15th address. Please be assured the majority of people present were interested in your remarks.

It has historically been the purpose of higher education to provide a forum for the free exchange of ideas. Unfortunately, some elements of the audience failed to respect that tradition.

We sincerely appreciate the valuable contribution you made to the Olin Lecture Series. The grace and patience you demonstrated was a positive reflection on you personally.

Thank you.

Very truly yours,

Joseph J. Bratek
